

INVITATION

to the international scientific conference of the Department of Legal History, Faculty of Law, Trnava University in Trnava in cooperation with the Legal History Section of the Slovak Historical Association

Reforms of Private Law in Legal History

30. SEPTEMBER 2022

The Department of Legal History of the Faculty of Law, Trnava University in Trnava, and the Legal History Section of the Slovak Historical Association kindly invite you to the international scientific conference

Reforms of Private Law in Legal History.

The conference will be part of the Trnava Days of Law Congress and will take place on 30 September 2022.

The broad topic creates a space for many legal historians to research various issues, problems, and challenges of private law and its branches.

Hence, the researchers can dedicate themselves to national and international issues challenging for individuals and societies, and the findings will surely enrich both the legal history and effective positive law.

The organisers will be happy to welcome legal historians and Romanists from Slovakia and abroad, and pose no limits to their creativity but the scope of private law and the potential of historical law to contribute to the understanding of the late, current, and future changes of legal systems.

The conference is an outcome of the VEGA Project No. 1/0018/19 entitled The Renaissance of the Forgotten and Re-Discovered Institutes of the Hereditary Law in Slovakia.
